

Q. For each of the years 2014 and 2015, provide the following forecasts:

- a. the total number of residential end-users by speed tier associated with the company's wholesale high-speed access services;
- b. the total number of wholesale residential end-users subscribing to the optional upstream speeds of 7 Mbps or 10 Mbps.
- c. the total number of business end-users by speed tier associated with the company's wholesale high-speed access services;
- d. the total number of wholesale business end-users subscribing to the optional upstream speeds of 7 Mbps or 10 Mbps.

A. a) and c)

See the Attachment. All of the information contained in the Attachment is filed in confidence with the Commission pursuant to section 39 of the Telecommunications Act and the directions provided by the Commission in the Appendix to Broadcasting and Telecom Information Bulletin CRTC 2010-961, Procedures for filing confidential information and requesting its disclosure in Commission proceedings, dated 23 December 2010, as amended in Telecom Information Bulletin CRTC 2010-961-1, dated 26 October 2012. In particular, the information which the Company has provided in confidence is of a type which the Commission has indicated in those bulletins should be treated as confidential. Release of this information would provide potential competitors with invaluable competitively-sensitive information that would not otherwise be available to them, and which would enable them to develop more effective business strategies. Release of such information could prejudice the Company's competitive position resulting in material financial loss and cause specific direct harm to the Company. Since the Attachment is confidential in its entirety, an abridged version is not being provided.

b) and d)

Since Bell Aliant does not offer any optional upstream speed for any of its retail or wholesale customers, there is no forecast of demand.
